

1

Check for any injuries and don't move them if they are hurt. Call 999.

2

If they are not hurt, gently roll the person on their side, bending the arm and leg to stop them rolling over.

3

Tilt their head back and lift their chin to open their airway.

4

Stay with the person and keep checking their breathing until the ambulance arrives.